

Girl Scouts

847-608-3120

The Bartlett Nature Center, a facility of the Bartlett Park District, provides an excellent setting for nature-related and hands-on interactive activities for Girl Scouts of all levels. Programs are led by trained staff using an exciting selection of program materials and props. We offer Scout Saturdays on a regular basis for troops or individuals. A troop may also schedule a customized event any day of the week. Some of the programs we offer, but are not limited to, are...
