

NEW! Summer Constellations

Are you amazed at the amount of stars in the sky at night? Join us as we learn about the constellations you can see in the sky during the summer and how they can be used to tell direction. We will also talk about the ways that constellations were used in the past and go for a hike to try and find constellations in the night sky. (MG)

Age: All ages w/adult    Limit: 6/12
