1 I am a neighbor of the fields at Ruzicka with two new, colorful memorial trees. I have a fancy half basketball court plus, a new playground to enjoy. EUREKA! You'll stand surrounded by tall trees with fluttering leaves of yellow in the fall. An innovative new playground for any weather, and a freshly painted basketball court, to be enjoyed by one and all!

2 In a place where children play, a trail where walkers tread day by day, a hill of dirt where pitchers stand, and the only baseball field on park district land.

3 Walking around the path, where stories unfold, a log cabin stands weathered and old. Amongst the laughter, where children play, find a beetle, not far away. Its color is red and black, a fun and exciting display!

4 Where the wild things play and beats are found. West of a road that's quite renowned. Climbing walls, swings and bongo drums, in this park, where music strums. Where wheels glide and skaters unite, softball & football fields in sight. This park's name brings an animal's howl. Play here and you will never scowl. Where am I?

5 In a place where fun meets the sun, look for your spot where the wheels and rails run. Find the spot where you can catch some air. Riders and skaters you'll find me there!

6 For four generations, two families tilled these fields. Now a place to roam, adventures awaiting close to home. Beneath the shelter, a picnic awaits, with views of the pond, where beauty creates. Nearby, kids laugh on slides and swings, while others play soccer and chase their dreams.

7 In honor of one who has served with pride, for forty years his dedication did abide. Look near the playground where children play, in this park his name lights the way.

8 I am a place of nature, where visitors roam. A center of activity, where knowledge is sown. Named after a man, known as "Pate" and James. I am a state park with a center that claims to welcome all who seek, a place to explore with trails and wildlife, that will leave you in awe. But before you wander and take in the sights, you must first visit me, to start your hike right.

9 Where tails wag and paws play, take a stroll, it's not far away. Dogs of all sizes, running free. Find the dog statue here, and you will see!

10 Near the peaceful blue bird's watchful eye, where yellow, red and green playgrounds reach for the sky. Cool off in the spray and laugh with delight. This colorful spot is a pure delight!
